Alliant International University presents

Excellence in Integrative Achievement

Internationally renowned activist speaks about her ground-breaking work in Conflict Resolution and Social Responsibility

Please join us to honor the second annual Integrative Achievement Award recipient, Dr. Dee Aker, for her worldwide lifelong achievements in conflict resolution and social responsibility projects.

Dee Aker, psychological anthropologist and conflict resolution professional, will describe 30 years of experience working in international communities, particularly with women working for peace on every continent. Currently she is the Deputy Director of USD's Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice. To learn more about Dr. Aker's projects, visit the Spring 2011 edition of the CIP Newsletter.

It is CIP's great privilege to honor Dee Aker's achievements. Dr. Aker will share a discussion of her work from Peace Corps volunteer to the Nepal Project, from the Dominican Republic to Hungary. She will invite our participation in her "spirit of hope" projects now underway.
